INSPECTOR GENERAL COMPLAINTS
PROGRAM (AFI 90-301)

Building 1294 (South End)
Phone: 777-5305

Air Force military and civilians members have a duty to report Fraud, Waste, and Abuse (FWA), mismanagement, a violation of any Air Force instruction, an injustice, deficiency, or like condition, to a superior or commander in the chain of command, to an IG or other appropriate inspector, or within an established grievance channel. (Complainants should understand they are submitting official statements within official command channels. Accordingly, they remain subject to punitive action for intentional submission of false statements).

Although complainants have a right to file an IG complaint at any level without first notifying or following the chain of command, they are encouraged to use the chain of command to resolve issues whenever possible before entering the IG system. The supervisory chain of command can often resolve complaints more quickly and effectively. The IG system should be used when referral to the command chain would be futile or there is fear of reprisal.

The IG Complaints Program does not usually handle matters that are covered by other Air Force instructions, directives or agencies. Below are a few such matters; however, the list is not all-inclusive):

- | | |
|-----------------------------------|--|
| a. Appeal of OPR/EPR | AFI 36-2401 (Military Personnel Flight) |
| b. Non-judicial Punishment | Chain of Command |
| c. Correction of Military Records | AFI 36-2604 (Military Personnel Flight) |
| d. Civilians | Contact the Civilian Personnel Office or local Union for procedures |
| e. Civilians (NAF) | NAF Employment Office or IG, DoD |
